

Personal Pronouns

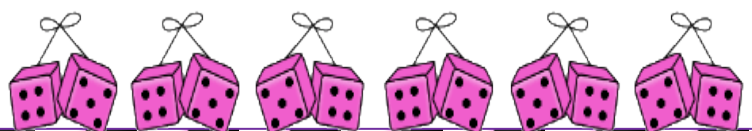

I - Personal pronouns:

II – Complete the sentences with the adequate pronouns:

Example: Patrick and his friends love cycling. They have some new bicycles.

1. Charles is a good student. _____ is at school at the moment.
2. My dog is called Snoopy. _____ has a house in the garden.
3. My brother and I love football. _____ have tickets for the match on Sunday.
4. Victoria wants some new jeans. _____ is at the clothes shop at the moment.
5. I have a test in the afternoon. _____ am at home to study.
6. Victoria and her sister take swimming lessons. _____ are good swimmers.
7. And you? Do _____ take swimming lessons, too?
8. You and your friends have a good volleyball team. _____ can enter the competition on Saturday.

III – Rewrite the sentences with the adequate pronouns:

Example: Victoria is Charles' cousin. She is Charles' cousin.

1. Charles loves riding the bicycle in the park.

2. He and his brother got two new bicycles as presents.

3. My brother and I live in Castle Street, Manchester.

4. Victoria lives in Castle Street, too.

5. Snoopy, the dog, loves playing with balls.

6. You and your colleagues speak English very well.

Personal Pronouns

I - Personal pronouns:

Personal Pronouns
I
You
He
She
It
We
You
They

II – Complete the sentences with the adequate pronouns:

Example: Patrick and his friends love cycling. They have some new bicycles.

9. Charles is a good student. _____ is at school at the moment.
10. My dog is called Snoopy. _____ has a house in the garden.
11. My brother and I love football. _____ have tickets for the match on Sunday.
12. Victoria wants some new jeans. _____ is at the clothes shop at the moment.
13. I have a test in the afternoon. _____ am at home to study.
14. Victoria and her sister take swimming lessons. _____ are good swimmers.
15. And you? Do _____ take swimming lessons, too?
16. You and your friends have a good volleyball team. _____ can enter the competition on Saturday.

III – Rewrite the sentences with the adequate pronouns:

Example: Victoria is Charles' cousin. She is Charles' cousin.

1. Charles loves riding the bicycle in the park.

2. He and his brother got two new bicycles as presents.

4. My brother and I live in Castle Street, Manchester.

4. Victoria lives in Castle Street, too.

5. Snoopy, the dog, loves playing with balls.

7. You and your colleagues speak English very well.
